1. I don't know how the plaudits will be distributed in the final wrapup of the case described in the attached, but I intend to see to it that [] gets the best recognition that SOVA can offer.

2. I frankly find the growing level of cooperative work between our analysts and DO officers exceeds anything I saw in my days as an analyst, and it shows in an increasing number of products that are clearly superior to what we used to turn out. I would like to put in a plug for the people who are making this possible. We need to learn to crawl before we can walk and to walk before we can run, but I believe I clearly see motion.
